

Publishing Agreement and License to Publish

To ensure the widest dissemination and the protection against copyright infringement of your article, the Communication Institute of Greece (COMInG) requires you as Author to authorize in writing to COMInG the rights to publish the Article you are contributing.

Publishing Agreement is required at the time of submission and requires the corresponding author's affirmation that:

- (a) the article is the author's or authors' original work and it has not been previously published or duplicated in any other previously published work,
- (b) the manuscript is submitted only to COMInG and it is not under consideration for publication in another organisation/ journal, accepted for publication or submitted elsewhere,
- (c) all authors consent to the publication of the manuscript in the, i) the abstract book of COMInG, ii) conference proceedings, iii) journal(s) of COMInG, iv) book, v) journals with which the Institute collaborates,
- (d) the person that signs warrants that s/he has the full authority to enter into this,

The Communication Institute of Greece (COMInG) leaves the papers copyright with the authors. COMInG only requires each author's agreement that we publish his/her research paper. For multi-author work, the leading author states that he/she has written authorization from all co-authors to sign this agreement, and that he/she will notify them of his/her action.
