

Dr Cristiana Tudor
Senior Lecturer
International Business and Economics Department,
Research Center in Applied Mathematics
Bucharest Academy of Economic Studies
Bucharest, Romania

Cristiana Tudor

At the Bucharest University of Economics, Ms Tudor is currently Senior Lecturer within the Department of International Business and Economics and member of the International Research Center in Applied Mathematics, to the establishment of which she pro- actively participated and where she manages various research teams as a principal investigator in funded research projects. Ms. Tudor is member of the organizing committee of the annual international academic conference of the Romanian Probability and Statistics Society and also member of the Computational and Financial Econometrics Network, of the Society for the Study of the Emerging Markets, of the Romanian Economic Society (SOSEC) and Researcher- part of the network Agence universitaire de la Francophonie. In addition, Cristiana Tudor co-founded the Romanian Quantitative Finance Association entitled QUANTFIN, an organization specialized in financial markets research involving both academicians and practitioners. Prof. Tudor is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), and member of the CFA Institute and of the CFA Society of Los Angeles. She is a scientific referee, among others, for the Quantitative Finance journal and for the Elsevier Insights Publishing House.

