

Academic Member and Ambassador
Communication Institute of Greece

Dr. Gökhan Acar
Asst. Professor
Head of Sport Management Department &
Faculty of Sports Sciences at Usak University, Usak,
Turkey

Gökhan Acar

Dr. Acar has graduated from Selcuk University, College of Physical Education and Sports, Teaching of Physical Education and Sports Department in 1999, and earned a master's degree in 2008 with a thesis titled "Determination the Knowledge and Habits of Boxers Regarding Nutrition". He has graduated from Gazi University PhD in 2011 with a thesis entitled "Relationship between the Ethical Leadership Behaviors by School Managers and the Organizational Justice and Motivation Levels of Physical Education Teachers".

Dr. Acar is currently responsible for the graduate and the post graduate level courses at Usak University – Sports Faculty and Department of Sports Management. His proficiency: Physical Education and Sports, Sport Marketing, Sport Organizations and Administration. Dr. Acar also started boxing life in 1991 and kick boxing in 1998. He had 176 amateur boxing matches which won 155 of them and lost 21. Between 1994 and 2005 he was professional athlete in Turkish National Boxing & Kickboxing Team.

Academic Member and Ambassador
Communication Institute of Greece

