

Erlin He
PHD candidate
Beijing normal university,
China

Erlin He

Erlin He is a PHD candidate from Beijing normal university. She received a master degree in education economic and management from Beijing Normal University and a bachelor degree in pedagogy in Anhui Normal University. Her research interests include students' social emotional learning, principal's teaching leadership and school bullying.

She was involved in a lot of research activities at school, for example "The History of the Development of Beijing Normal University Educational Subjects". Her master graduate paper: A Study on the Instructional Leadership of Primary and Middle School Principals from the Perspective of Confucian Democracy.

