Yehuda Bitty

Yehuda Bitty is currently Senior Lecturer at the Herzog Academic College – Israel. In the last years, he was the Coordinator of the School of Advanced Studies at this College and also Head of the Jewish Education Philosophy Department. He holds a BA in the Humanities from the Open University and an MA in Jewish Thought from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and a PhD from the Department of Jewish Thought at Ben-Gurion University.

He teaches courses in the theoretical aspects of education (philosophy of education, education and postmodernism) and the history of Jewish education in which he sees a meeting ground of educational ideologies, social processes and visionaries. His research combines the history of Jewish education with Jewish modern thought.
