

Academic Member and Ambassador
Communication Institute of Greece

Yu Han
Ph.D. Candidate
School of Education
Western Sydney University
Sydney
Australia

Yu Han

Yu Han is currently a Ph.D. candidate in School of Education, Western Sydney University, Australia. Her Ph.D. study is supported by a joint full scholarship of China Scholarship Council (CSC) and Western Sydney University. She is expecting to obtain her doctoral degree in September 2019. She worked as a lecturer teaching English to college students after getting her Master's degree in 2011 from Jilin University, China. Her research areas are language teacher education, culture studies in teacher education, English Medium Instruction (EMI) and post monolingual education. She has published journal articles on Modern University Education and International Journal for Scholarship of Teaching and Learning.

Academic Member and Ambassador
Communication Institute of Greece

