

Academic Member and Ambassador
Communication Institute of Greece

BARCA ALESSANDRO
Tutor Organizer
University "Aldo Moro"
Bari, Italy

BARCA ALESSANDRO

Dr Barca Alessandro has a PhD in "Design and evaluation of educational processes". He is a tenured teacher in primary school but currently holds the position of Tutor Organizer at the Single-Cycle Degree Course in Science of Primary Education at the University of Bari "A. Moro". He is also a trainer for teachers of all levels. He is an adjunct professor of Methodology and Didactics of IRC and School Theory at the various branches of the Theological Faculty of Puglia. He is an expert at the Chair of Environmental Education, History of Pedagogy and Literature for Children in the Single-Cycle Degree Course in Science of Primary Education and in the Bachelor of Science in Education and Training, University of Bari "A. Moro". He is an adjunct professor in the courses for the achievement of specialization in educational support activities for students with disabilities (TFA support) of all school orders at UniBa, UniFg, UniCal and UniRc. He is also author of numerous national and international publications.

Academic Member and Ambassador
Communication Institute of Greece

