Athens, Greece | July 2025

International Success: ICCM2025 and EDU2025 Inspire Innovation in Leadership and Education

The Communication Institute of Greece (COMinG) proudly concludes its 9th Annual International Conference on Communication and Management (ICCM2025) and 5th International Conference on Education (EDU2025), held in parallel from 30 June to 4 July 2025 at the Emmantina Hotel in Athens, Greece.

These twin conferences brought together 42 researchers from 19 countries (Europe, Asia, North America, Australia, Oceania) across five continents (Europe, Asia, North America, Australia, and Oceania), creating a vibrant platform for academic exchange and professional growth on two pressing themes:

- ICCM2025: “Reimagining Leadership: Exploring Innovative Pathways for Business and Communication”
- EDU2025: “Reimagining Education and Nurturing Learner Wellbeing”

The conferences featured engaging speeches, interactive roundtables and workshops, and vibrant networking sessions, fostering interdisciplinary collaboration. Topics ranged from digital transformation in leadership, inclusive business practices, and ethical communication to holistic education models, student mental health, and technology-enhanced learning. Participants praised the conferences for their high academic standards, inclusive platform, and cultural warmth. “These events offered not just knowledge but real connection,” noted one of the delegates.

The conference participants discussed the importance of fostering creativity, nurturing self-care, and encouraging a more humanized approach to education and leadership. They also considered the need to support teachers' well-being and empower creative teaching methods. The conference concluded with discussions on communication skills in business, mental health challenges, and the future of education, emphasizing the importance of creativity, self-care, and humanized approaches to teaching and leadership.

The conference was organized by the Communication Institute of Greece and endorsed by the University of Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France; King Graduate School at Monroe College, USA; Beijing Normal University, China; Royal Holloway University of London; Kaplan Singapore; [Robotics Ac.
